RUSSIAN SOLDIER IS GLAD HE IS IN CITY PRISON

Cropshute, in Police Station Cell, Gives His Views on War in Far East.

JAPANESE OFFICERS BEST

Far from the strenuous doings of the far East, John Cropshute, a full-fledged Russian, sat on the edge of his bunk in the city jail last night contendedly kicking his heels together and smoking a cigarette. He was contented because there is no serious charge against him, merely that of loitering, and he is confident of his release this morning; also, because he has taken out naturalization papers and is no longer at the disposal of the Czar of all the Russias. "If I was at home now," said Cropshut, "I'd be getting a little piece af paper like this-so," (measuring imaginary dimensions in the atmosphere) "and that little piece of paper would tell me that I was needed in the army. Every man has to serve five years, but after putting in this time and being sent home he is still at the Czar's disposal until he has passed his forty-fifth birthday. I am thirty-nine years old and would still have six years to serve if they

"When I had been in the army for five cears and seven months, I was campaigning near the Black sea and was sent home from there. I remained at home for several years and came to Chicago at the time of the world's fair in 1893. My home has been there ever since. I don't want to go back into the Russian army; there I made a little over $5 a year; here, I make much money when there is work. "I don't like this war, and that's where I'd have to be if I was home. I will never go back again. The Russians are all right in a fight, they will stand up man for man with the Japs, but the officers—the Jap. officers, are the best, and that's the reason the Russians have been losing their battles, I hear about it in the papers, and that's enough. I am happy here.'

MAKING MANY PLANS

With Improvements and New Lease, Local Post Will Enlarge Its Field of Labor.

There has recently been much activity in the local post of the Salvation Army. Was Set for May 18, but Will Not Occur Until First Week of October.

SEVERAL REASONS GIVEN

The demonstration in behalf of peace and arbitration which it had been intended should occur in this city annually on May 18, has this year been postponed by request of the chairman of the committee, Mrs. May Wright Sewall. The reasons offered by Mrs. Sewall for this postponement are the following: First, the fourteenth international Peace

Congress will convene in Boston the first week in October. This congress will bring to the United States a large number of the most distinguished peace workers in Europe. It is planned by the committee that the day on which this congress convenes shall be observed as Peace Demonstration day throughout the country, and following Of Crawfordsville, Who Was Elected Grand the congress, subordinate congresses will be organized at least in every place where members of the central committee of organization reside. As Mrs. May Wright Sewall, of this city, is a member of the contral committee, one of the subsidiary congresses will be arranged for Indianapolis, and several of the
